THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO State of Nevada v. American Home

CIVIL ACTION: 01-CV-12257-PBS

Products Corp., et al.,

Judge Patti B. Saris

D. Nev. Cause No. CV-N-02-0202-ECR

SICOR INC. and SICOR PHARMACEUTICALS, INC. ANSWER TO STATE OF NEVADA'S AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendant Sicor, Inc. and Sicor Pharmaceuticals, Inc.("Sicor") hereby responds and answers the State of Nevada's Amended Complaint (the "Complaint") as follows:

Preface

Prior to addressing the specific allegations of the numbered Paragraphs, Sicor states the following general objections and responses to the Complaint as a whole. The Complaint contains purported quotations from a number of sources, many of which are unidentified. If any of the quotations originate in documents protected by the attorney client privilege, the work-product doctrine or the joint-defense privilege, Sicor reserves the right to assert such privileges, hereby moves to strike such references and demands return of any such documents that Plaintiff may have in its possession, custody or control. In answering allegations consisting of quotations, an admission that the material quoted was contained in a document or was uttered by the person or entity does not constitute an admission that the substantive content of the quote is or is not true or that the material is relevant or admissible in this action.

The Complaint also improperly and repetitively refers to Sicor and certain other defendants and third parties on a collective basis, failing to plead with requisite particularity allegations against Sicor. It also improperly mixes factual allegations with inflammatory rhetoric so as to make it virtually impossible to respond meaningfully. Finally, the Complaint includes terms that are undefined and that are susceptible of different meanings.

Notwithstanding these pleading deficiencies, Sicor has attempted to respond to Plaintiff's allegations. To the extent allegations refer to the knowledge, conduct or actions of other entities, Sicor is generally without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations and, on that basis, Sicor denies those allegations. Sicor also denies each and every allegation contained in the Complaint, except as specifically hereinafter admitted, and any factual averment admitted herein is admitted only as to the specific facts and not as to any conclusions, characterizations, implications, innuendoes or speculations that are contained in any averment or in the Complaint as a whole. Moreover, Sicor specifically denies any allegations contained in headings, footnotes, the Table of Contents or unnumbered Paragraphs in the Complaint. These comments and objections are incorporated, to the extent appropriate, into each numbered paragraph of this Answer.

Third Defense

Plaintiff has not suffered, and will not suffer, any injury to a legally protected or cognizable interest by reason of the conduct of Sicor as alleged in the Complaint.

Fourth Defense

To the extent Plaintiff or any of its citizens for whom it is seeking relief obtains recovery in any other case predicated on the same factual allegations, it is barred from seeking recovery against Sicor based on the Complaint pursuant to the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel and the prohibition on double recovery for the same injury.

Ninth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are preempted by the dormant Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution.

Tenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Sicor are barred because Sicor has complied with all applicable regulations of the federal and state governments.

Eleventh Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Sicor are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitations and repose, and by the doctrines of laches, estoppel and waiver.

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because they violate Sicor's rights under the Due Process and Ex Post Facto clauses of the United States Constitution, as well as the Constitution of the State of Nevada, insofar as Plaintiff seeks to impose liability retroactively for conduct that was not actionable at the time it occurred.

Thirteenth Defense

Sicor's statements or actions were not the proximate cause or cause in fact of any injury or alleged loss.

Fourteenth Defense

Plaintiff fails to state with particularity facts to support the fraud allegations, and fails to plead with particularity the fraudulent concealment and multi-source medicine allegations against Sicor contained in the Complaint.

Fifteenth Defense

Plaintiff has no standing or capacity to bring some or all of the claims raised in this suit, including but not limited, to Plaintiff's asserted status in parens patriae to recover Medicaid or Medicare expenditures or to seek injunctive relief.

Sixteenth Defense

Plaintiff fails to allege with particularity its civil conspiracy claims against Sicor as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 9(b).

Plaintiff's claims against Sicor are barred because Sicor did not directly or indirectly conspire with any other entity or engage in any other conduct in violation of state or federal law.

Eighteenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Sicor are barred, in whole or in part, because Sicor did not make any false statements to Plaintiff or any of the citizens for whom Plaintiff is seeking relief. Nineteenth Defense

Plaintiffs claims against Sicor are barred because Sicor did not directly or indirectly engage in any conduct in violation of state or federal law.

Twentieth Defense

Sicor denies that Plaintiff has valid consumer protection claims against Sicor under Nevada state law. However, if such claims are found to exist, Sicor pleads all available defenses under the applicable laws.

Any allegedly fraudulent statement or conduct of Sicor was not consumer-oriented as required under the Nevada consumer protection laws.

Twenty-Seventh Defense

Some or all of Plaintiff's claims for injunctive relief against Sicor are barred by the doctrines of in pari delicto and/or unclean hands.

Twenty-Eighth Defense

Some or all of Plaintiff's claims against Sicor arise from Plaintiff's failure to follow its federal and state statutory and regulatory obligation to set reimbursement rates at Estimated Acquisition Cost.

Twenty-Ninth Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Sicor are barred, in whole or in part, due to its failure to join indispensable parties.

Thirtieth Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Sicor are barred, in whole or in part, because it suffered no damages as a result of the matters alleged in the Complaint.

Thirty-First Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any injuries sustained by Plaintiff were the result of its own conduct or the intervening or superseding conduct of third parties.

Thirty-Second Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Sicor for damages are barred, in whole or in part, because: (1)

Plaintiff failed to mitigate its damages, and that failure to mitigate damages should proportionately reduce the recovery of such persons and the allocation of any fault, if any exists, attributable to Sicor; (2) Plaintiff would be unjustly enriched if allowed to recover any portion of the damages alleged in the Complaint; (3) by the doctrine of consent and/or ratification to the extent that Plaintiff has received and paid for medicines manufactured, marketed and sold by v after the filing of Plaintiff's original Complaint; and (4) Plaintiff's claims are speculative and remote and because of the impossibility of ascertaining and allocating those alleged damages.

Thirty-Third Defense

Sicor is entitled to a set-off - should any damages be awarded against it - for the entire amount of all damages or settlement amounts recovered by Plaintiff, with respect to the same alleged injuries.

Thirty-Fourth Defense

The applicable statutory ceilings on recoverable damages must limit any damages recovered by Plaintiff from Sicor.

Thirty-Fifth Defense

Plaintiff fails to allege facts or a cause of action against Sicor sufficient to support a claim for attorneys' fees, treble damages and/or legal fees

Thirty-Sixth Defense

Plaintiff's punitive damages claims against Sicor: (1) have no basis in law or fact; (2) are not recoverable because the allegations of the Complaint are legally insufficient to support a claim for punitive damages against Sicor; (3) cannot be sustained because laws regarding the standards for determining liability for and the amount of punitive damages fail to give Sicor prior notice of the conduct for which punitive damages may be imposed and the severity of the penalty that may be imposed and are void for vagueness in violation of Sicor's due process rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of Nevada; (4) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages exceeding the limits authorized by the laws or other comparable laws would violate Sicor's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth

Amendments to the United State Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and applicable state laws of Nevada; (5) cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages in this case, combined with any prior, contemporaneous, or subsequent judgments against Sicor for punitive damages arising from the design, development, manufacture, fabrication, distribution, supply, marketing, sale, or use of Sicor's medicines, would constitute impermissible multiple punishments for the same wrong in violation of Sicor's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would constitute double jeopardy in violation of the Constitution, common law and statutory law of Nevada; (6) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages without the apportionment of the award separately and severally between or among the alleged joint tortfeasors, as determined by the alleged percentage of the wrong committed by each alleged tortfeasor, would violate Sicor's due process and equal protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and public policies of Nevada; and (7) cannot be sustained because any award of punitive damages, which are penal in nature, without according Sicor the same protections that are accorded to all criminal defendants, including the protection against unreasonable searches and seizures, the privilege against self-incrimination, and the rights to confront adverse witnesses, a speedy trial, and the effective assistance of counsel, would violate Sicor's rights guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendments as incorporated into the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and public policies of Nevada.

Thirty-Seventh Defense

Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages against Sicor cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages by a jury that: (1) is not provided constitutionally adequate standards of sufficient clarity for determining the appropriate imposition of, and the appropriate size of, a punitive damages award; (2) is not adequately instructed on the limits of punitive damages imposed by the applicable principles of deterrence and punishment; (3) is not expressly prohibited from awarding punitive damages, or determining the amount of an award of punitive damages, in whole or in part, on the basis of invidiously discriminatory characteristics, including without limitation, the residence, wealth, and corporate status of Sicor; (4) is permitted to award punitive damages under a standard for determining liability for punitive damages that is vague and arbitrary and does not define with sufficient clarity the conduct or mental state that makes punitive damages permissible; (5) is not properly instructed regarding Plaintiff's burden of proof with respect to each and every element of a claim for punitive damages; and (6) is not subject to trial court and appellate judicial review for reasonableness and furtherance of legitimate purposes on the basis of constitutionally adequate and objective standards, would violate Sicor's Due Process and Equal Protection rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and would be improper under the Constitution, common law and public policies of Nevada.

Thirty-Eighth Defense

Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages against Sicor cannot be sustained because an award of punitive damages that is subject to no predetermined limit, such as a maximum multiple of compensatory damages or a maximum amount of punitive damages that may be imposed, would (1) violate Sicor's Due Process rights guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth

Amendments to the United States Constitution; (2) violate Sicor's right not to be subjected to an excessive award; and (3) be improper under the Constitution, common law and public policies of Nevada.

Thirty-Ninth Defense

Sicor adopts by reference any additional applicable defense pled by any other defendant in the companion cases consolidated for discovery by this Court, not otherwise pled herein.

Fortieth Defense

Sicor hereby gives notice that it intends to rely upon any other and additional defense that is now or may become available or appear during, or as a result of the discovery proceedings in this action and hereby reserves its right to amend its answer to assert such defense.

WHEREFORE, Sicor respectfully demands judgment dismissing the Complaint in its entirety and awarding it the costs and disbursements of this action, as well as such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
